Happy Fall Y'all

Dear Valued Tenants,
It's that time of year again, back to school. From our family to yours, we wish you a productive and educational August. As for us we will be sending our youngest back to college, watching the leaves fall, and working hard for you!

... Take care and be safe!

James and Teresa White

Updates

Inspections

We want to ensure that the home where you live is in great condition for both yourself and the property owner. Therefore, JWE LLC will conduct routine inspections of the interior and exterior of the residence. More details to follow in upcoming e-mails and letters.
